LOUISIANA WATERCOLOR SOCIETY

From the President

The Louisiana Watercolor Society's Annual International Exhibition is now celebrating forty-five years of bringing the best of the country's and the world's watercolor paintings to New Orleans for all to see what wonders can be achieved with a brush, paper and some tubes of paint. All troubles seem to melt away as I gaze at these excellent paintings in person. Seeing the show is like being transported on a magic carpet. Art has that effect on people. I am privileged to be a part of this organization and to be associated with all the wonderful artists who participate in our show and all of our member-volunteers who make the show possible.

Thanks go to this year's Show Chair, Cathy Goodier, her Co-Chair, Susan Copping, and also Monica Bishara, Louise Hansen, Reachel Mayeur, Jean Mitchell, Rick Wilke. Thank you to our reception food committee—Cathy Goodier, Jean Mitchell, Diane Newman and Rita Congemi. A big thank-you also goes to our Juror/judge, Chris Krupinski, AWS, NWS, LWS, who has chosen the beautiful show this year. Thank you to Auseklis Ozols and The New Orleans Academy of Fine Arts for lending us their beautiful gallery for our venue this year. And thanks to Susan Shepherd and Place St. Charles for hosting our Encore Show.

In closing, my advice is to let your eyes linger on the paintings. Notice the brushwork, the washes, the colors and how they've mingled on the paper to form the compositions that make up our 45th Annual International Exhibition. You will be transported - just like I am. Enjoy!

Karen Larmeu Stakelum, LWS
President, Louisiana Watercolor Society

Juror's Statement

Chris Krupinski AWS, NWS, LWS

I am very pleased to have had the opportunity to jury the Louisiana Watercolor Society's 45th International Exhibition. Thank you must be extended to the LWS Board for all the hard work and effort that make a show like this possible.

I was presented with the entries and had the daunting task of selecting a finite number for this exhibition. I take this very seriously because it takes a lot to put work out there. I know. I've been there many times.

Art allows each of us to be unique and visually translate the world around us. Our style is a reflection of who we are. And this is why we paint.

I respond to work that is wholly crafted into a strong visual statement. It doesn't matter the genre. I look for originality, good design, creativity, balance of color and good use of the medium.

Congratulations to those whose work was selected and a special salute to the award winners. It is important to be selected, but not nearly as important as striving to make your next work even better.

Chris Krupinski, AWS, NWS, LWS

2015 FIRST PLACE AWARD

Vickie Nelson LWS
Camas, WA

17"x20"

Godzilla
$700

This is my youngest fur person, Baxter. He is quite a character, very high energy and an adorable monster.

GODZILLA was painted on 140lb. Fabriano cold press paper with mostly Winsor Newton paints, and Dream Catcher brushes from Cheap Joe's.

Just getting into a show of this caliber is an award in itself. I am thrilled beyond words to win such a high honor in the Louisiana Watercolor Society.

Thanks to all who work behind the scenes as well as Chris Krupinski, juror and judge for this wonderful exhibition.
